Re: Standard of Conduct / Officer-Administrator

[violation of Administrative Regulation 207 section IV B.

(failure to post copy of Admin. Reg. 207-208 on institutional bulletin boards)]Complaint

On or about the first week of July, 2006 I, inmate Fareed sent a request to the Warden of VCF requesting to view the Admin. Reg. 207-208. At which time upon a visit to the law library the Officer Abercrombie, the Law library Clerk notified me that I would not be permitted to view the regulations, and that they were dress codes governing officers, and that they had no use in relevance to me. She also told me to stop pursuing it because it would do me no good, and that things weren't going to change when she realized I was aware of the true relevance of the Regulations.

In violation of Title 14-3-13 Code of Alabama specifically, observing all the rules and regulations prescribed for the government of convicts,

The Warden is also in further violation of Admin. reg. 207-208 specifically section II Responsibilities A:

Institution and departmental staff heads must periodically remind employees to re-read this directive and ensure that all employees under their control adhere to the standards of conduct expected of them.

Relief Sought

1. Implementation of Administrative Reg. 208
  2. Formal reprimand not limiting or excluding a seven(7) day suspension without pay
  3. Removal from correctional facility as an officer
  4. Psychological counseling be given
  5. For the Commissioner to implement the Regulations 207-208 formally.
